| NO. OF PAGES E OF INFO. E ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Mayy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the ponhoon bridge in Right (# 96-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 mmmall mailland in an also some fleet minesweepers. Large warehtee, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigg Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Layelupe (# 57-05, E 25-35) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. At Agendalms Bay (#86-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warships, similar to those known as German "Schnelbooten". They are propelled by the diem! suppress of the sense of an MO seen at Riga. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is match, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side? The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters the width of the ream is approximately matched by the width of the ramp is approximately the meters, and it is approximately to meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siens Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the with church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with oranse, and also rails which run litto the water. The MIKEAII GOVGROW and the AKADEMIK PAVLOW were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. | | | | | | 0S01540R00670003 | MUH-1 AUC |
|---|--|--|---|--|--|---|--|
| CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY The contents information affecting the National Detention of the United States within the meaning of the Enginese Laws, Time B. U.S.C. Sec. 200 and 750, then Unsamented or revelation of which in any meaner to an unsationated person. Is prohibited by law. S.—B.—CR.—E.—T SOX1-HUM SOURCE (Latvian SSR) EFORT DATE DISTR. ACQUIRED E OF INFO. SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Havy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riger (18 56-58), B 24-05), there were four large and 16 mmm1, abstactines and also some fleet infraetweepers. Large varietipe, which have believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horison of Riga Bay, varrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Livelupe (N 57-05, B 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and requently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. At Agendatina Bay (186-57), E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, wardships, statilar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diese pragine. D. At Agendatina Bay (186-57), E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, wardships, statilar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diese pragine. D. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are hig parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP1s, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each size? The overall width of the vessel is egyproximately 20 meters the width of the ramp is approximately then selects a gray and the supproximately bo getters large, and tapidaling the prov. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fileh factory. | | 1. | مو | | | | ij |
| CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY The contents information affecting the National Detention of the United States within the meaning of the Enginese Laws, Time B. U.S.C. Sec. 200 and 750, then Unsamented or revelation of which in any meaner to an unsationated person. Is prohibited by law. S.—B.—CR.—E.—T SOX1-HUM SOURCE (Latvian SSR) EFORT DATE DISTR. ACQUIRED E OF INFO. SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Havy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riger (18 56-58), B 24-05), there were four large and 16 mmm1, abstactines and also some fleet infraetweepers. Large varietipe, which have believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horison of Riga Bay, varrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Livelupe (N 57-05, B 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and requently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. At Agendatina Bay (186-57), E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, wardships, statilar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diese pragine. D. At Agendatina Bay (186-57), E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, wardships, statilar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diese pragine. D. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are hig parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP1s, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each size? The overall width of the vessel is egyproximately 20 meters the width of the ramp is approximately then selects a gray and the supproximately bo getters large, and tapidaling the prov. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fileh factory. | | | | | - harden sidege - | | and the control of th |
| CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY This material contains information effecting the Mational Defense of the Datice States within the meaning of the Explorance Laws. This N. U.S.C. Sect. 70 and 76. the fractional persons of which in any meaner to an unauthorized person is promitted by law. SECRET SOX1-HUM SOURCE (Latvian SSR) REPORT FOR TO Riga. DATE DISTR. ACQUIRED E OF INFO. E ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Bavy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Right (8 76-76), 12 24-05), there were four large and 16 memal, substarines and also some fieter innerweepers. Large varefulps, which have believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Riga Bay, varrying out firing exercises. They were observed from 157-05, 12 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. A A Agenchains Ray (195-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warshings, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by Section No. 1 page 3 is similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by Section No. 2, always appears when there are this parades in Riga, arrivals of VIPic, etc. This vessel is metal, painted, gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each slade. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters long, not including the prov. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. Con Stems Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old partiastion school, there is a new shityward, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also ralls which run into the water. The MIRGHAI COXCOCO and the AKADEMIX PAVILOY were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SAPE-C-R-E- | | | | | | , • | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · |
| S-E-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Havy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Right (8 56-56), 284-65), there were four large and 16 smill submarines and also Some files the miseweepers. Large warefully voward the end of that month, and and in August 1954. 2. At Agenskalans Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warfships, similar to those known as German "Schmellbooten". They are propelled bridge in Might (8 10 mg). 2. At Agenskalans Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warfships, similar to those known as German "Schmellbooten". They are propelled of an NO seen at Riga. 3. A "floating box", of which as mispession is given in Stetch No. 2, always appears when there exist parameters and sit is approximately 20 meters 10mg, not including the prov. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02), E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. There allows appears to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02), E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 5. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02), E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 6. On Stens Island (N 57-02), E 24-05), near the old newigation school, there is a new shityward, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fitsh factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also ralls which run into the water. The MIRCHAIL COMMON and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. | 1FO | R M | ATION REPOR | RT INI | ORMATIO | N REPOR | T |
| SECTION OF PAGES E OF INFO. E ACQUIRED SOURCE FYALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Nevy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new mooden bridge and the ponthoon bridge in Rigg (N 55-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smeth, submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigg Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. At Agenskains Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warriships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by Alexan and programs, and the seen at Rigg. A "floating box", of Which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Rigg, arrivels of VIP19, etc. This weesel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled the Propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately the meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulle only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the White church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKEAL GOWGROW and the AKADEMIK PAYLOW were being repaired here in the Spring of 1952. SEAC-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM SEARCH X AMMY X NAVY X NAVY X AMM | | | CENTRAL II | NTELLIGENCE | AGENCY | | ٠, |
| S.E-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Mavy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Rigg (N 95-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 small, submarinee and also some freet minesweepers. Large warehips, which are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigg Bay, carrying out firing at the beginning of the 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warrahings similar to those known as German "Schnelbotten". They are propelled businessed in Sies of an MO seen at Riga. 3. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP1s, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side? The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the rump is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 50 meters long, not including the prov. 1. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 2. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with roanes, and also rais which run into the water. The MIKEALL GOWGROW and the AKADEMIK PAYLOW were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SEC-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM | This mater | ial conta | ins information affecting the National D | efense of the United | States within the meaning o | of the Espionage Laws, Title | • |
| DATE DIST. 21 July 1955 NO. OF PAGES E OF INFO. E ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Navy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the ponhoon bridge in Rigge (N 95-98, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 small ambmarinee and also Some fleet minesweepers. Large warehips, which are the between to be curiasers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Higgs Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of Dune 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenekalns Bay (N55-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warshins, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel, engines, and the seen at Riggs. 3. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Rigg, arrivals of VFP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-rupopelled; the propellers being at each side? The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the rump is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80' meters long, not including the prov. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with ranse, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKRAIL GOWGING want the AKADEMIK PAYLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SEAC - RE- T | 18, U.S.C. S | secs. 793 | and 194, the transmission or revelation | | anner to an unauthorized p | erson is prohibited by law. | |
| DATE DISTR. 21 July 1955 NO. OF PAGES E OF INFO. E ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Navy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Rigge (W 56-96, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 mmml minmarlines and also Rose fleet minesweepers. Large warehips, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Riggs May, carrying out firing exclasses. They were observed from Livelupe (W 57-05, E 25-35) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, south and also Rose 1954. 2. At Agenekalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by including longing. 3. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This excessed is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately to matched the propelled of the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately the meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prov. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old newigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landamy of the white church and the fish factory. There are at Least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIRBHI GOWGOW and the AKADEMIK FAVLOW were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SEALE X ARMY X NAVYEY X AND | | | |   | | | |
| E ACQUIRED E ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Many Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riger (% 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 small milmarlines and also alose fleet mines/weepers. Large warehips, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Riga May, carrying out fring exercises. They were observed from Livelupe (% 57-05, E 23-05) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. At Agenskains Bay (% 56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by Alexal engines, A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled; the propellers being at each side? The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (% 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (% 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also ratile which run into the water. The MIKEAIL GOVEROW and the AKADEMIK FAVLOW were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SEC-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM | UNTRY | | USSR (Latvian SSR) | | REPORT | | 30X1-HUN |
| E ACQUIRED SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Navy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riggr (N 36-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smell submarines and also #COME fleet minesweepers. Rarge warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigg Bay, terrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Livelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskains Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled hy. Also were also as a figs. 3. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the result of the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 3. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shitypard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two elips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MKMAIL GOYGROW and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were boing repaired here in the spring of 1952. SATE X ARMY X NAVY X NAVY X ARM X FEI ARC NAME Washington indicated by "7", field durchoules by "2", field durchoules by "2", field durchoules by "3", field durchoules by "3". | BJECT | | Port of Riga | | DATE DISTR. | 21 July 1955 | |
| SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Havy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riggr (N 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 sment, submartines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warehips, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigg Bay, marrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Livelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskains Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by distinct a figure of an Mo seen at Rigg. 3. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Rigg, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being; at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the remp is approximately the meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. On Stens Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MKRAIL GOVGROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SOX1-HUM S-E-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM | | | · . | | NO. OF PAGES | . 6 : | • |
| SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Havy Day, 25 July 1954, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Rigg (N 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smml submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Riga Bay, tarrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Livenue (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskains Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small, warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by distinct a stream of an Mo seen at Riga. 3. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being; at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the remp is approximately the propellers being; at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the remp is approximately end meters long, not including the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKBAIL GOVGROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SEATE ARMY A MANY | TE OF IN | FO. | | | REQUIREMENT NO. | RD | |
| SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 1. On Soviet Navy Day, 25 July 195k, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riggr (N 56-58, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smmll submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Riga Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Livelupe (N 57-05, E 25-5) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 195k. 2. At Agenskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel, engines, 3. A "floating box", of which ap impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side? The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 20 meters, the width of the read is given in the sum of the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKRAIL GOVEROW and the AKADEMIK PAVLOW were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SOX1-HUM S-E-C-R-E-T 50X1-HUM S-E-C-R-E-T 50X1-HUM | CE ACQ | JIRED | | | REFERENCES | | 50X1-HUM |
| On Soviet Navy Day, 25 July 195k, between the new wooden bridge and the pontoon bridge in Riggr (N 56-58, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smm1 submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Riga Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 77-05, E 25-5) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 195k. 2. At Agenskains Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel engines. 2. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 20 meters, the width of the rore always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 3. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKRAIL GOVEROW and the AKADEMIK PAVLOW were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SANTE X ARMY X NAVYEY X AR X Fall ASC NAME Washington distribution indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | TE ACQUI | IRED | | | | · | 50X1-HUM |
| bridge in Rigst (N 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smerl submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigs Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel engines. 3. A "floating box", of which ap impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVCROV and the AKADEMIK FAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SMATE X ARMY X NAVY X NAVY X AIR X FSI ACC (Note Weshington distribution indicated by "X", field distribution by "#") | | | SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFIN | NITIVE. APPRAIS | AL OF CONTENT IS TEN | TATIVE. | |
| bridge in Rigst (N 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smerl submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigs Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel engines. 3. A "floating box", of which ap impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVCROV and the AKADEMIK FAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SMATE X ARMY X NAVY X NAVY X AIR X FSI ACC (Note Weshington distribution indicated by "X", field distribution by "#") | | | | | | | |
| bridge in Rigst (N 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smerl submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigs Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel engines. 3. A "floating box", of which ap impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVCROV and the AKADEMIK FAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SMATE X ARMY X NAVY X NAVY X AIR X FSI ACC (Note Weshington distribution indicated by "X", field distribution by "#") | | | | | | | |
| bridge in Rigst (N 56-56, E 24-05), there were four large and 16 smerl submarines and also some fleet minesweepers. Large warships, which are believed to be cruisers, are often to be seen on the horizon of Rigs Bay, carrying out firing exercises. They were observed from Liyelupe (N 57-05, E 23-55) on occasions at the beginning of June 1954, and frequently toward the end of that month, and also in August 1954. 2. At Agenskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25-05), there are always six or eight small warships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel engines. 3. A "floating box", of which ap impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. 3. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. 4. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVCROV and the AKADEMIK FAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SMATE X ARMY X NAVY X NAVY X AIR X FSI ACC (Note Weshington distribution indicated by "X", field distribution by "#") | | | | | | | |
| ships, similar to those known as German "Schnellbooten". They are propelled by diesel engines, Sketch No. 1 page 3 is the appearance of an MO seen at Riga. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rais which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. S-E-C-R-E-T STATE X ARMY X NAVYEY X# AIR X FBI AEC (Note: Weshington distribution indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | e) | | rs, are often to be seen | on the horiz | rships, which are on of Riga Bay. ca | believed to be | • |
| of an MO seen at Riga. A "floating box", of which an impression is given in Sketch No. 2, always appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. STATE X ARMY X NAVYEY X AIR X FBI AEC (Note: Weshington distribution Indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | ar | t the | rs, are often to be seen ses. They were observed beginning of June 1954, | on the horiz from Liyelup | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, ca e (N 57-05, E 23-5 | believed to be crying out firing 5) on occasions | · : |
| appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVGROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. STATE X ARMY X NAVY EV X AIR X FSI AEC (Note: Westbington distribution indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | ar 2. At | t the nd als t Ages hips, | rs, are often to be seen ses. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. nskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, ca e (N 57-05, E 23-5 ly toward the end are always six or | believed to be crying out firing 5) on occasions of that month, | · : |
| appears when there are big parades in Riga, arrivals of VIP's, etc. This vessel is metal, painted gray, and self-propelled, the propellers being at each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. STATE X ARMY X NAVYEY X AIR X FSI AEC (Note: Weshington distribution indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | ar 2. At | t the nd als t Ages hips, v dies | rs, are often to be seen ses. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sel engines, Sketch No. 1 pag | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there as German "Sc | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, ca e (N 57-05, E 23-5 ly toward the end are always six or | believed to be rrying out firing 5) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled | · : |
| each side. The overall width of the vessel is approximately 20 meters, the width of the ramp is approximately ten meters, and it is approximately 80 meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. STATE X ARMY X NAVYEY X AIR X FBI AEC (Note: Weshington distribution indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | ar 2. At st | t the nd als t Ager hips, v dies f an N | rs, are often to be seen ses. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. nskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, Sketch No. 1 pag seen at Riga. | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The | believed to be rrying out firing 5) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance | · : |
| meters long, not including the prow. There always appear to be hulls only lying at old Milgravis yard (N 57-02, E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SEE-C-R-E-T SOX1-HUM S-E-C-R-E-T (Note: Weshington distribution indicated by "X", Field distribution by "#") | 2. At st st ot ot ot 3. A ar | t the nd ala t Ager hips, v dies f an N "flos ppears essel | rs, are often to be seen see. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. mskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a seel engines, Sketch No. 1 pag 40 seen at Riga. ating box", of which an is when there are big para is metal, painted gray. | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-pro | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the prope | believed to be rrying out firing 5) on occasions of that month, eight small war-y are propelled the appearance to. 2, always petc. This illers being at | 50X1-HUM |
| E 24-07), which are being fitted out. On Siena Island (N 57-02, E 24-05), near the old navigation school, there is a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC (Note: Washington distribution indicated by "X", field distribution by "#") | 2. At st st ot | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies fan N Wflos ppears essel ach st | rs, are often to be seen see. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a seel engines, Sketch No. 1 pag 40 seen at Riga. Atting box", of which an its when there are big para is metal, painted gray, lde. The overall width o | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the prope is approximately | believed to be crying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war-y are propelled the appearance to. 2, always petc. This llers being at 20 meters, the | 50X1-HUM |
| a new shipyard, with new buildings and new machinery. As seen from the river, it is upstream from the conspicuous landmark of the white church and the fish factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SOX1-HUM S-E-C-R-E-T | 2. At si by ot 3. A ap ve es wi | t the nd also t Ager hips, with the fan I will of the second seco | rs, are often to be seen see. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a engines, Sketch No. 1 pag 40 seen at Riga. Atting box", of which an its when there are big para is metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width of the ramp is approximat | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is (mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten mete | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the prope is approximately | believed to be crying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war-y are propelled the appearance to. 2, always petc. This llers being at 20 meters, the | 50X1-HUM |
| factory. There are at least two slips, with cranes, and also rails which run into the water. The MIKHAIL GOVOROV and the AKADEMIK PAVLOV were being repaired here in the spring of 1952. SOX1-HUM S-E-C-R-E-T | 2. At si by od | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies fan N "flos ppears essel ach siddth ceters here s | rs, are often to be seen ses. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. Atting box", of which an is when there are big parais metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width of the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls | on the horiz from Livelup and frequent (5-05), there is German "Sc (se 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the prope is approximately rs, and it is approximately rs, and it is approximately. | believed to be rrying out firing 5) on occasions of that month, eight small wary are propelled the appearance to 2, always etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 | 50X1-HUM |
| S-E-C-R-E-T STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC (Note: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".) | 2. At sh had sh | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach sidth ceters nere s 24-07 n Sier new s | rs, are often to be seen ses. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sengines, Sketch No. 1 pages of the seen at Riga. It is when there are big para is metal, painted gray, is metal, painted gray, it is when there are big para is metal, painted gray, it is metal, painted gray, it is metal, painted gray, it is approximated the ramp is approximated long, not including the salways appear to be hulls of the ramp is fitted at Island (N 57-02, E 24-shipyard, with new building the seen at Rigard. | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (se 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying cout. 05), near the ngs and new in the self in the | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the proper is approximately rs, and it is approach at old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As see | believed to be crying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war- by are propelled the appearance to 2, always etc. This clers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is a from the river. | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |
| STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC (Note: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".) | ar 2. At all by odd are executed with med are the first a | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach stidth ceters nere a 24-07 new stactorynto the | rs, are often to be seen sees. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, 1 Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. It is when there are big para is metal, painted gray, and the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls (1), which are being fitted that Island (N 57-02, E 24-chipyard, with new buildingstream from the conspications. There are at least two the water. The MIKHAIL GO | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying cout. 05), near the ngs and new ruous landmart o slips, with VCROV and the | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the proper is approximately rs, and it is approat old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As seek of the white chunch cranes, and also | believed to be rrying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance o. 2, always etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is a from the river, rch and the fish rails which run | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |
| (Note: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".) | 2. At si his of | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach stidth ceters nere a 24-07 new stactorynto the | rs, are often to be seen sees. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. I Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. Ating box", of which an it when there are big parais metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width of the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls (1), which are being fitted that Island (N 57-02, E 24-thipyard, with new buildingstream from the conspication. There are at least two water. The MIKHAIL GO and here in the spring of | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying out. 05), near the ngs and new nuous landmar o slips, with VOROV and the 1952. | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the proper is approximately rs, and it is approat old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As seek of the white chunch cranes, and also | believed to be crying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance o. 2, always etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is n from the river, rch and the fish rails which run were being | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |
| (Note: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".) | 2. At si his of si his of si his wife si his of si his o | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach stidth ceters nere a 24-07 new stactorynto the | rs, are often to be seen sees. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. I Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. Ating box", of which an it when there are big parais metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width of the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls (1), which are being fitted that Island (N 57-02, E 24-thipyard, with new buildingstream from the conspication. There are at least two water. The MIKHAIL GO and here in the spring of | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying out. 05), near the ngs and new nuous landmar o slips, with VOROV and the 1952. | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the proper is approximately rs, and it is approat old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As seek of the white chunch cranes, and also | believed to be crying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance o. 2, always etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is n from the river, rch and the fish rails which run were being | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |
| | 2. At sh | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach stidth ceters nere a 24-07 new stactorynto the | rs, are often to be seen sees. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. I Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. Ating box", of which an it when there are big parais metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width of the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls (1), which are being fitted that Island (N 57-02, E 24-thipyard, with new buildingstream from the conspication. There are at least two water. The MIKHAIL GO and here in the spring of | on the horiz from Liyelup and frequent (-05), there is German "Sc (e 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying out. 05), near the ngs and new nuous landmar o slips, with VOROV and the 1952. | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the proper is approximately rs, and it is approat old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As seek of the white chunch cranes, and also | believed to be crying out firing if) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance o. 2, always etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is n from the river, rch and the fish rails which run were being | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |
| NFORMATION REPORT INFORMATION REPORT | ar 2. At sh | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach stidth ceters nere a 24-07 new stis tis tis tis tis tis tis tis tis ti | rs, are often to be seen sees. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, I Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. It is when there are big para is metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width o of the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls (1), which are being fitted in Island (N 57-02, E 24-shipyard, with new buildingstream from the conspication. There are at least two water. The MIKHAIL GO and here in the spring of | on the horiz from Livelup and frequent (5-05), there is German "Sc (se 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying out. 05), near things and new nuous landmar to slips, with voron and the ly52. S-E-C-R-E-T | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the prope is approximately rs, and it is approximately rs, and it is approximately at old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As seek of the white chunch cranes, and also e AKADEMIK PAVLOV | believed to be crying out firing (5) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance the appearance co. 2, always , etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is a from the river, rch and the fish rails which run were being | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |
| | ar 2. At by od 3. A ar ve es wi me 4. Tr E | t the nd also t Ager hips, v dies f an N wflos ppearsessel ach stidth ceters nere a 24-07 new stis tis tis tis tis tis tis tis tis ti | rs, are often to be seen sees. They were observed beginning of June 1954, so in August 1954. Inskalns Bay (N56-57, E 25 similar to those known a sell engines, I Sketch No. 1 pag to seen at Riga. It is when there are big para is metal, painted gray, ide. The overall width o of the ramp is approximat long, not including the always appear to be hulls (1), which are being fitted in Island (N 57-02, E 24-shipyard, with new buildingstream from the conspication. There are at least two water. The MIKHAIL GO and here in the spring of | on the horiz from Livelup and frequent (5-05), there is German "Sc (se 3 is mpression is des in Riga, and self-proof the vessel ely ten meter prow. only lying out. 05), near things and new nuous landmar to slips, with voron and the ly52. S-E-C-R-E-T | rships, which are on of Riga Bay, case (N 57-05, E 23-5) ly toward the end are always six or hnellbooten". The given in Sketch N arrivals of VIP's pelled, the prope is approximately rs, and it is approximately rs, and it is approximately at old Milgravis y e old navigation smachinery. As seek of the white chunch cranes, and also e AKADEMIK PAVLOV | believed to be crying out firing (5) on occasions of that month, eight small war- y are propelled the appearance the appearance co. 2, always , etc. This llers being at 20 meters, the ximately 80 ard (N 57-02, chool, there is a from the river, rch and the fish rails which run were being | 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM |

The River Fleet School (Uchilishche Rechnogo Flota) is in the former Cirulu

Comment: This submarine was not as large as the "Z" class.

S-E-C-R-E-T

Comment: An MO is a submarine chaser.

Comment: There may be two of these vessels.

50X1-HUM

50X1-HUM

House on Kliver iela, near the pontoon bridge.

13.

1.

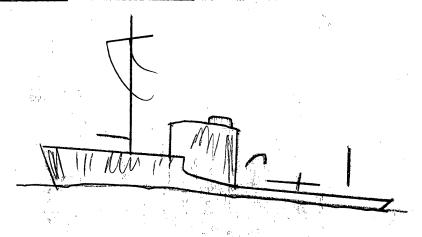

2.

3.

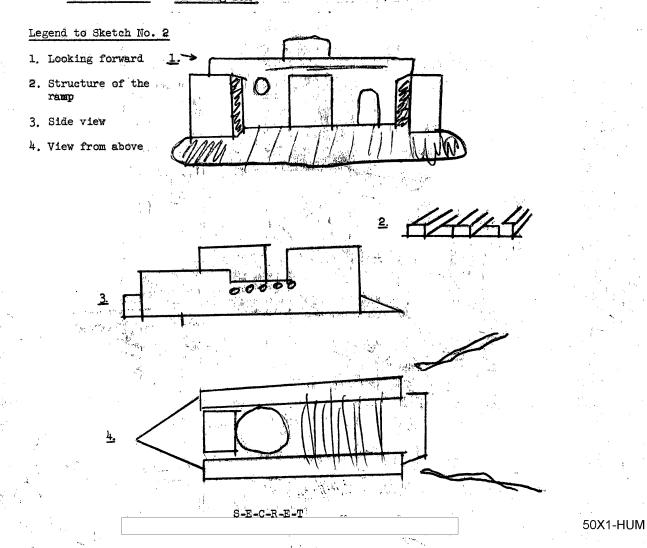

-3-

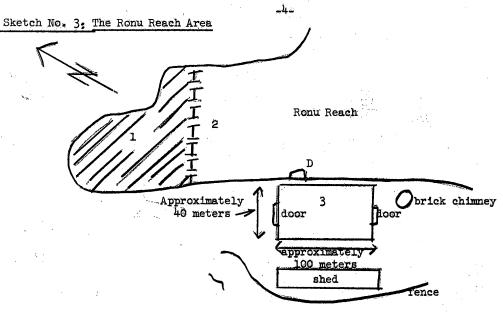

50X1-HUM

Sketch No. 1: MO Type of Vessel

Sketch No. 2: "Floating Box"

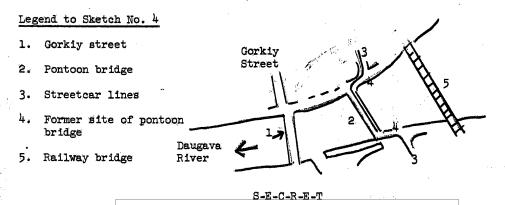

The wall marked 2 above, is built like this:

Following is an impression of the new building marked 3 above. Unfortunately, there was no opportunity to observe whether this building also has doors opening onto the waterfront.

Sketch No. 4: Daugava River in the Vicinity of Gorkiy Street

50X1-HUM

